Potlatch Veterinary Clinic

Potlatch Veterinary Clinic hosts FREE monthly education lectures. January's topic will be Integrative Medicine with Dr. Lillian McKinley. Did you know that Dr. McKinley offers a variety of integrative/alternative medicine options for your pets, horses, and even livestock? These options include acupuncture, therapeutic laser, pulsed electromagnetic fields (PEMF) therapy, and Chinese herbal medicine. All of these treatment options can be combined with our conventional medicine to assist in the care of your animals. All of our monthly lectures are hosted at Potlatch Veterinary Clinic, 240 6th Street. Lectures are free, refreshments are provided, and there is a free raffle that all attendees are entered into. Come to Potlatch Veterinary Clinic on Jan. 13 at 6 p.m. Please RSVP by calling 208-875-4838 or emailing office@potlatchvetclinic.com.

We hope you had a Merry Christmas. Speaking of which, thanks for all of the community support at our hot cocoa stand during the Christmas parade. Our club has a tradition of donating all the proceeds from the sale to the Sharing Tree. We also approved giving $300 towards the same.

At our December meeting, our leaders talked about getting our projects started in January. Please get signed up on Z-suite to be sure you are on their list to contact. Remember to pay your county dues so you are an official member. Our club is also asking for $5 member dues.

We elected members to this year's Awards Committee. Congratulations to Kimber, Brinley, Charlotte, Lucy, and Brooklynn. They will be judging our demonstrations and determining the Member of the Year awards.

We finished the meeting with Awards.

- ◆ Congratulations to Denton (Jr.), Clara and Kimber (tie-Int.), and Ellie (Sr.) for Member of the Year awards.
- ◆ Congratulations to Denton (Jr.), Jace (Int.), and Gwen (Sr.) for Best Demonstration.

- ◆ Congratulations to all the county award recipients. Our club had a good representation.
- ◆ We recognized Amelia, Sophia, and Colton. They have completed their last year in 4-H.

The fair theme for this year is “Sweet Treats and Fair Eats”. We can hardly wait.

And finally, Happy New Year everyone!

Your F.M.B.E. 4-H Reporter, Ellie Ownbey

Potlatch Food Pantry

We thank the volunteers who come, help, and bring smiles. Thank you to Palouse Cares for the 300 pounds of food you brought to us. Thank you, Potlatch Jr. and Senior High students for the can contest with the sophomores and the pantry as the winners. Thank you, community members and friends, who have given eggs, food, and money to help others.

Potlatch Food Pantry is open Jan. 8 & 22 from 10 a.m. to noon and 5 to 7 p.m. The Idaho Food truck comes to Grace Community Church on Jan. 28.

We can be reached at PO Box 453, Potlatch, ID 83855. In the case of a food emergency, call 208-875-0735 or city hall at 208-875-0708, and we'll meet you at the pantry.

Pastors thank community for generosity

The Potlatch Pastors Association is overflowing with gratitude for the amazing generosity shown to our community this Christmas! Being able to fill Christmas holiday food baskets takes a village, and if you helped in any way, thank you!

Thanks to you, 41 families, including 51 wonderful children, were blessed with a complete holiday meal, featuring a turkey or ham, all the festive fixings, and delicious pies to top it off.

Your kindness didn't stop there; every child received toys and a book, bringing smiles, excitement, and the true spirit of Christmas to their homes. Because of you, hearts were lifted, tables were filled, and Christmas joy was shared in abundance. We are deeply, joyfully thankful.

Blessings to you all, and may your season be filled with peace and light!

Thanks for the help

Mountain Home Grange is grateful for all of the community support of its annual scholarship efforts.

Mayor announces Christmas parade winners

Potlatch Mayor David Brown thanks everyone who helped put up lights in the park and those who entered the parade!

“As most everyone knows, this was the 30th year for our parade,” stated Brown, “and I feel that everyone outdid themselves with their entries. I hope you all will participate again next year.”

Next year's theme will be “Happy 250th Birthday to the USA” so it will be a red, white and blue event. “We will see if the Fireworks Man can also come up with something to fit the theme” said Brown.

“I hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and best wishes for a Happy New Year!”

Here are the winners of the Christmas parade.

Potlatch Arts Council seeks support

Dear Community Members and Arts Enthusiasts,

As the year comes to a close, we at the Potlatch Arts Council reflect on another remarkable year of nourishing the creative spirit in our community through arts, cultural programming, advocacy, and development. It is your unwavering support that makes our mission possible.

Since 1992, the Potlatch Arts Council has proudly served Potlatch and surrounding areas as a non-profit dedicated to providing arts experiences and engagement opportunities. Over the decades, your generosity has helped us create a rich legacy:

- 1990s: Supported High School drama, Elementary School art classes, dance workshops, and the local theater group Potlatch Players, which included a large costume collection. We welcomed professional performers, including tribal dance groups, Missoula Children's Theater, and our beloved Scenic Six Fiddle Show.
- 2000s: Continued with elementary school performances, student art exhibits across Potlatch, drama workshops, Missoula Children's Theater productions, school drama presentations, art day/week workshops, art shows, and the Scenic Six Fiddle Show.
- 2023 - 2025: Scenic Six Park instrument installation, Missoula Children's Theater, direct support to Potlatch School District arts programs.

As we move into our next chapter, we look forward to strengthening partnerships and gaining volunteers for the Potlatch community. Our hope is to shape, provide, and continue valuable exposure and experiences in the arts for generations to come. This year, thanks to contributions from people like you, we expanded programs and reached more residents, fostering creativity and community spirit. Your donations have directly supported:

- Accessible Arts Programs: Ensuring everyone, regardless of background or economic status, can engage with artistic opportunities.
- Cultural Programming: Bringing people together through diverse events that foster creativity and strengthen our community fabric.
- Advocacy and Development: Providing platforms and resources for local talent to shine and contribute to our cultural landscape. The impact of the arts in our community is undeniable—it decorates our shared spaces, inspires our youth, and tells our unique stories. With your continued generosity, we can make next year even more impactful.

Please consider making an end-of-year donation to the Potlatch Arts Council. Your gift will help us continue to provide artistic, cultural, and educational opportunities that improve the quality of life for all our neighbors.

Donations can be mailed to the address below or email us for more information:

Potlatch Arts Council P.O. Box 10
Potlatch, Idaho 83855 Email:
potlatchartscouncil@gmail.com

Thank you for being a vital part of our creative community. Together, we will keep the arts thriving in Potlatch.

Warmest regards,

The Board of Directors and Volunteers

New Year Traditions, according to Google AI

Midnight Kiss: Kissing someone at midnight to ensure love for the year.

Lucky Foods:

Black-eyed Peas & Greens: Eating them for wealth (peas as coins, greens as cash).

Round Foods: Eating 12 grapes (one for each month) or other round foods for prosperity.

Pork: Eating pork (not chicken or lobster, which walk backward/fly away) for progress.

Lucky Colors: Wearing yellow for money or red for romance (especially red underwear).

First Footer: The first person to cross your threshold (ideally a dark-haired male with a gift) brings good fortune.

Resolutions: Making promises for self-improvement, a tradition potentially dating back to the Babylonians.

Clean Slate: Cleaning the house before New Year's Day to wash out the old, but not on the day, to keep luck in.

Open Doors: Opening doors and windows at midnight to let out old energy and welcome the new.

CK Saddle Club news

Well folks, here we are headin' into 2026. Hope it will be a good year. As a reminder, Cayuse Kids' first meeting of the new year will be on Sunday, Jan. 4 at 9 a.m. in our clubhouse, 1012 Bear Creek Road in Princeton. We welcome all interested folks.

Our Winter Pinochle Series will be on Saturday evenings, beginning Jan. 31 starting at 6 p.m. Come early if you want some instructions or a refresher on playing pinochle. There is a $5 buy-in and cash pay-outs. Homemade concessions available. Come, have some winter fun in our warm clubhouse. The second and third dates for our Winter Pinochle Series are Feb. 7 and Feb. 21, starting at 6 p.m. For more information, contact our 2026 CK President, David Moore, at 208-568-1425.

Information on club activities is available on the Cayuse Kids Facebook page.
